

Information for Law Students

The Law Society of Prince Edward Island requires that students pass certain courses at Law School in order to be eligible to be enrolled as an articled clerk. The Law Society gives two scholarships each year to law school students

Required Courses

In order to be enrolled as an Articled Clerk in Prince Edward Island, the Law Society requires the successful completion of the following courses at law school:

- Canadian Constitutional Law
- Civil Procedure
- Contracts
- Criminal Law
- Ethics and Professional Responsibility
- Property Law
- Torts

and the successful completion of 4 of 7 courses in the following subject areas:

- Criminal Procedure
- Commercial Law
- Corporate Law
- Evidence
- Family Law
- Wills/Trusts
- Administrative Law

If you have any questions about required courses, please contact the Law Society.

LSPEI Scholarships

Each year the Law Society and Law Foundation give two $2,000.00 scholarships to law students. The student must be enrolled or accepted for enrolment as a full-time law student at an accredited university law school for the next academic year. Proof of enrolment or acceptance for enrolment must accompany the application. The Scholarship Committee of the Law Society selects recipients. The selection is based on scholastic attainment in the previous year of academic study and demonstrated financial need. The deadline for submission of applications is usually July 31st of each year.

Scholarship Application Form